THE HOG GOES A GLIMMERING

ALDERMEN PREPARE TO OUST HIM IN PART FEBRUARY FIRST

Ordinance Will Remove Pens From the Principal Part of Town—The Street Car Franchise Fight Didn't Materialize—Each Side Watching the Other—Light and Water Plans Committee Appointed.

The city Aldermen met in regular session last night.

The firemen's committee made a report recommending an appropriation of $300 for the purpose of making additions and repairs to the Southside Hose Company's building. The report was adopted.

Alderman Boyd, a committee of one appointed to draft an ordinance prohibiting the keeping of hogs within the city limits, made a report which was adopted. The ordinance provides that no hog shall be kept except in a pen with plank floor, made close and tight, four one foot from the ground. That all pens shall be cleaned out once a week and lime or ashes used to cover the filth removed. That no pen shall be located within 200 feet of any residence, spring or well, or within 100 feet of any public street of the city. That a violation of this ordinance shall be liable to a fine of $10. The ordinance goes into effect Feb. 1, 1901.

Wm. Parks asked permission to sell fresh meats at the corner of Lindsay and Maple streets. The report was referred to the market committee with power to act, provided the place is outside of the old incorporate limits.

Alderman Denny moved that the waterworks committee and the electric light committees be authorized to proceed at once to prepare plans for additions and improvements to the present waterworks plant and for installation of electric light plant, with authority to employ an engineer for their assistance. Carried.

The mayor appointed as the apportionment committee the members of the finance committee with the same chairman.

The expected fight for a street car franchise did not materialize. Each side was represented and was watching the other, waiting for it to make a move, it appeared. Maj. Chas. M. Stedman was present in behalf of the people whom Mr. Lee H. Battle has interested, and Mr. John N. Wilson was there to look out for those whom Mr. Z. V. Taylor has interested. Neither one said a word. The game appeared to be to wait to see what the other man wanted.

THE TRINITY ARCHIVE

The November Table of Contents—Dr. Hammond at the College—Will Run a Special to Raleigh on the 29th Correspondence of The Telegram.

Durham, Nov. 23.—Dr. J. D. Hammond, Secretary of the Board of Education of the Southern Methodist Church, was the guest of President Kilgo during this week. He delivered an address to the students in the chapel Tuesday evening. The address was one of unusual interest and made a great impression on the college community. He was highly pleased with the work done. Dr. Hammond made many friends who will always be glad to have him visit the college.

Mr. F. W. Anderson, of Toronto, Canada, is at the college in the interest of the Student Volunteer Movement of Foreign Missions. He is under the auspices of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. He will spend several days at the college.

The Archive for November is out. The table of contents is: A Sermon to Students, John C. Kilgo; A Vision, D. R. Eamer; The Last Cruise of the Convoy, F. D. Swindell, Jr.; Sameul Johnson in Revolutionary Times, T. Murray Allen; The Reward Doubled, E. S. Yarbrough; Karl Ermon, E. C. Perrow.

Arrangements are being made to run a special train to Raleigh for the debate on Thanksgiving Day. It is probable that a large number will attend.

Mr. J. M. Hoyle, of Belwood, has moved his family to the Park and is occupying a house near Trinity Park High School. His son is a student in college.

L. H. STURGIS BOUND OVER

He is Committed on a Charge of Embezzlement—Says He is Innocent.

The case against L. H. Sturgis being tried yesterday afternoon resulted in binding over the defendant in a $200 bond. Messrs. J. C. Meekins and W. P. Bynum represented him and made a valiant fight. Judge Adams and Maj. Stedman appeared for the prosecution.

The opinion seems to prevail that the young man, L. M. Sturgis was the man who deserves the punishment. But he is gone, nobody knows where. It is said he filled the town with bogus checks and was into more than one difficulty. Other warrants are out against him.

Through the kindness of John B. Wright, Mrs. L. M. Sturgis was enabled to go to her people in Baltimore last night. When her husband left, the furniture, which had been bought on the installment plan, was taken, and she was penniless. She has one child.

The old man says his son put the money in the house he supposes. He says he is innocent of the charge against him, and knows his wife, who is with a married daughter in Norfolk will go crazy when she hears of the trouble.

A Young Man Shot.

Mrs. Emsley Field is building a house on East Gorrell street for Mr. B. E. Smith. Some one has been stealing his lumber. Last night he watched for the thief. About 7 o'clock, a young man, about 18 years old named Stevens was sent to a nearby house by his father to get something. He made a mistake and got in the yard that was being watched, and got the shot intended for the thief. The shot, which were small, went into his shoulders. The injury was not serious. Dr. Harrison removed the shot.

Rev. Mr. Johnson May Succeed Rev. Mr. White.

Rev. Livingston Johnson is being talked of all over the State as the probable successor of Rev. J. E. White as secretary of the Home Mission Board of the Baptist Convention. The Convention meets in Raleigh December 5, when a successor to Mr. White, who has accepted a pastorate in Atlanta, will be elected. Rev. Mr. Johnson does not desire the place, but his friends are urging him for it.

To See Tar Heels Play Football.

A number of persons from Raleigh and Charlotte passed through the city last night and this morning going to Norfolk, Va., to witness the game of football which occurs there today between the universities of North Carolina and Virginia.

The Tar Heels have strong hopes of winning, both the game today and on Thanksgiving when they play Georgetown in Washington city.

Meeting on Dispensary Question.

The members-elect of the legislature meet by invitation with the Dispensary board today to confer as to the time of closing the dispensary. The board asked that July first, next, be set as the time. The legislators will confer and give their answer later.

Prof. Smoot Will Re-enter the Ministry.

Rev. T. A. Smoot, who has been teaching in the Greensboro Female College, has asked for active ministerial work in the Conference, and will give up his position in the College. His successor has not been appointed.

The counterfeiters are helping the people to solve the problem of safe and convenient money. They are demonstrating the impossibility to all but professionals of keeping track of our intricate system of paper currency, which is made still more complicated by the frequent changes in designs. And there stands the constant object lesson of the Bank of England notes, the simplest in the world, yet never counterfeited successfully.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The new veils are very clear and have quite small spots, not too closely set. Fine white and flesh pink tulle is strewn with small black spots, and the all-white veilings are exceedingly thin and the spots small. They are still tied beneath the chin, the old fashion of wearing them only to the lips not having found many admirers. On toques the veil is cut only to the required length and not turned in at all, so as to be barely noticeable over the brim.—Washington Star.

LAST NIGHT AND TODAY'S WORK

THE FEATURES OF EACH OF THE OCCASIONS.

Last Night the Audience Was Charmed, Amused and Edified by Mr. C. W. Tillet, the Consecrated Lawyer—The Work of Today Was Routine Largely—A Fine Scene When the Bishop Put Down a Dollar for an Unfortunate Brother and Told the Brethren "to Come On."

Dr. James Atkins presided at the Missionary Meeting last night.

The audience was large, the song service conducted by Mr. Spence delightful as usual, and that is saying much.

The occasion calling the people together was the missionary rally or mass meeting, an attractive part of every annual Conference.

The exercises were opened by singing hymn 189, "Savior Wash Me in the Blood."

The missionary exercises opened with Scripture lesson. Matthew 28 was read by Rev. W. M. Bagby of Monroe, after which a fervent prayer was offered by Rev. R. F. Bumpass, of the North Carolina Conference.

The report of the Board of Missions was read by Rev. J. E. Gay, Secretary and Treasurer. This report was gratifying, showing an increase in amounts raised for foreign and domestic missions over last year. Shelby District, W. R. Ware, Presiding Elder, came with a clean sheet. After the address of C. W. Tillet, Esq., $108.92 was raised, which paid out the Greensboro District.

Dr. James Atkins made an inspiring talk giving some very interesting figures concerning the progress of missions during the present century. The Telegram will contain full synopsis of this excellent address. It will appear in Monday's issue.

The address by Charles W. Tillet, Esq., of Charlotte, was one of the most pointed talks made by any one during the session. He began by saying: "I am proud, scared and delighted. This sounds like a medley, but it is a fact. I am proud because put up in a Bishop's place, scared because I face a lot of Methodist preachers, and delighted because I see so many pretty girls. I don't set myself up as any better than anybody else, even though the privilege is granted me to occupy the sacred desk. A lady once asked my wife if her husband was as good as he talks. I told her she should have answered no."

He referred to a report in The Telegram calling a certain sermon an "eye opener," he had heard it called an "eye closer." "My speech, I am afraid, will empty this house, so I ask somebody to please close the doors." He thought that the reason why more money was not raised in the church is stinginess, covetousness. He intended pulling some pockets. "There is a mad rush in this day after money. The young folks are for having a good time, while the old folks were after the dollar, and they are getting it at the sacrifice of themselves and their children. The day may come when these money getters, who think of nothing else, will find both ducats and children gone. My ducats! my child! all gone."

Mr. Schoolfield said to the speaker that in the beginning of his ministry he thought worldliness was the great sin, then he centered on drunkenness, next he decided on pride, but finally fixed on covetousness, and has never changed his mind. This is God's truth. There are members of the church who talk about spirituality at the same time full of rascality. They go to church and prayer-meeting too, sometimes. It is a good idea to follow John Wesley's practice. Make all you can, save all you can, and give all you can.

Christ preached about money. The sin of loving it. Never preached a sermon about dancing, card playing, theater-going. He didn't have time. He was getting after the hypocrites. He had a good text in the girl dancing for John's head, but did not use it. The speaker wanted folks to understand he was not endorsing these worldly amusements. He said he would rather get drunk four times a year than to fail to pay his quarterly. If you preachers wish to warm up something go out in the country and preach against cheating day laborers and tenants. Go into the cities about June and preach there from the text, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesars" and come down on the men who lie and swear to it in making their returns for taxables. His father, the late Rev. John Tillet, once had a congregation of seven persons. He preached from the text: "Owe no man anything," and the sermon was talked about for weeks. "Try your folks a round on that text."

A banker gone wrong. The preacher perhaps failed to awaken his conscience in the beginning of his speculations. Talk about card gambling. What about dealing in cotton futures by church members? This is the worst gambling. There will be no great revival of religion until we have a revival of common honesty among church members. Our domestic missionaries are suffering. Many men living on a miserable pittance. On one circuit a preacher only received $160, forty in cash, balance in high priced barter. This is a shame. He was a bit ashamed that Charlotte District had fallen behind Greensboro. Hurt him a bit, and he had heard a man say that if Charlotte did wake up Greensboro would get ahead of it.

Charles Tillet preached the truth last night. And all of us esteem him for so doing. He is one of the truly noble characters and may he live long as a blessing to his Church and State. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Bumpass.

FOURTH DAY'S SESSION.

Conference convened this morning at 9 a. m. Bishop Morrison in the chair. Religious exercises were conducted by the Bishop. Minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The Committee on Conference Relations submitted a report recommending that A. G. Grant be granted the superannuated relation which was adopted.

Question 20 was resumed. R. H. Parker, J. W. Jones, J. C. Postele, R. D. Sherrill, J. A. Bowles, J. H. Brendle, J. D. Carter, R. H. Penland, W. Le Getts, J. B. Carpenter, H. K. Boyer, W. P. McGhee, R. N. Stephenson, O. J. Burruss, W. M. Leith, J. P. Rodgers, S. W. Brown (supply) W. I. Hughes, R. F. Bryant, T. B. Johnson, H. L. Atkins, S. M. Davis, J. J. Edes, J. A. B. Fry, R. M. Hoyle, R. G. Barrett, J. G. Nelson, S. T. Cordell, E. G. Pusey, J. A. Clark, N. R. Richardson, C. M. Gentry, E. W. Bradley, J. D. Arnold, W. F. Womble, D. H. Comann, D. Giles, T. W. Smith, T. B. Gibson, J. M. Downum, M. A. Smith, James Wilson, W. S. Cherry, S. P. Douglas, W. L. Dawson, C. F. Sherrill, P. L. Terrell, T. A. Boone, J. T. Stover, W. L. Sherrill, G. W. Ivey, J. W. Bowman, G. W. Callahan, J. O. Shelly, J. J. Brooks, C. M. Pickens, T. J. Rogers, W. M. Boring, J. Reynolds, W. G. Malloney, J. H. Moore, G. G. Horley, reported and passed examination of character.

Question 18. Who are located this year? J. A. Green and M. W. White were appointed on the Sunday school committee.

It was announced that Rev. P. S. Terrell, in the burning of the parsonage on his circuit since he left home, lost everything in the nature of personal property, his family barely escaping. Elder Thompson suggested that he be helped. That was enough. The Bishop said, "we are ready." He began the collection by dropping a dollar on the table. Everybody followed, and a fine sum was collected. Methodist preachers bear each others burdens. Brother Terrell was too full to make a speech, but he gave thanks.

Dr. Smith, of the Greensboro Presbyterian church was introduced.

The report of the Board of Education, special order for the day, was read by Rev. G. H. Detwiler, Secretary of the Board. This Board recommends the disposition of the educational fund and the officers and professors of the different institutions of learning. The report was adopted.

Report of Committee on Bible Cause was made by Rev. J. H. Brendle, and was adopted.

R. C. Craven, John F. Davis, E. K. McClary, James W. Campbell, A. S. Raper, J. T. Erwin, L. Taylor, who are to be ordained deacons were called and took the vows of their sacred office.

The Bishop's address was admirable. He wisely counseled that they

THE CONFERENCE ENTERTAINED.

The Faculty and Students of Greensboro Female College Give an Enjoyable Affair.

The entertainment by the young ladies of Greensboro Female College to the Conference was a very enjoyable affair, and reflected great credit on the institution.

Professor J. W. Parker sang the "Holy City," which was encored, then he thrilled all hearts with patriotic melody of the "Star Spangled Banner." The recitation of "A Kentucky Cinderella" by Miss Merrimon was enjoyed the most of all the things on the program. Her recitation was well nigh perfect. She made her audience laugh and cry. The Girls of Greensboro Female College are as stones polished after the similitude of a palace.

After the exercises the visitors were pleasantly entertained socially by the faculty and students and were shown over the spacious and elegant building.

HIGH POINT'S NEW ORDINANCE CONCERNING THE ERECTION OF BUILDINGS.

The Falling of a Flue Came Near Killing Mr. Jarrell—High Point Will Soon be the City of Churches—Prof. Crowell Wins the Prize at Mr. Davis' Housewarming—Mr. Jones Shipping Potatoes North—More Building Going On.

Correspondence of The Telegram.

High Point, Nov. 24.—At a called meeting of the Board of Aldermen this week, three special ordinances were adopted. 1st. That a committee of two to be known as the building committee, be added to the regular standing committee, who will pass on all buildings to be erected within the city limits. 2nd. That the penalty for violating order of building committee is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $50 in each offence. 3rd. No person shall be allowed to erect any wooden building or any frame building with iron siding, on either side of Washington street, beginning at College and ending at Jordan street, nor on Main street, except by permission of building committee. Messrs. J. L. Ludlow and Knox came before the board and submitted propositions to secure the needed water for waterworks. The matter was left open until next Monday night. It is probable that water will have to be secured from other sources than was first thought, (bored or artesian wells) and that the supply will have to come from Deep river.

Rev. J. C. Davis, D. D., of Concord, will preach and conduct services in St. Mary's Episcopal church Sunday morning and evening.

The Jr. O. U. A. M., of this place, will have thanksgiving services in their hall Sunday afternoon.

Several Alleghany county stock dealers are here this week.

Work has been resumed on the Turner & Matton building, which was stopped pending negotiations for a deal.

Rev. Mr. Leonard, who is superintending the erection of the Lutheran church edifice here, was in town a day or so this week. The site chosen is a very desirable location, on South Main street on the corner next to the Turner lot. Lumber and brick are being hauled to the grounds and work on the foundation commences next week. With this addition to the already large number of houses of worship, High Point can be truly called the "City of Churches."

The building in which was located the mayor's office has been moved to the eastern part of the town, the City Fathers having ordained that His Honor shall have a cozy office made of brick.

Mr. F. B. Hill, of Chicago, who has been rusticated in these parts for the past ten months, returned home Wednesday much benefited from his stay.

The new order, the Knights of Kodosh, is increasing rapidly. Mr. Hines, State organizer, will effect an organization here in a few days.

Mr. J. B. Hoover, who has been spending the past ten months in South America and Porto Rico, is here again.

A series of meetings will begin at the Presbyterian church Sunday. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Goodman, will be assisted by Rev. W. A. Gillon, of Lexington.

Mr. A. J. Dodamead, while at his mother's home in Richmond recently, ran across a letter in his father's effects that he values very highly. It is a letter from Gen. Robert E. Lee in his own handwriting, to Col. Dodamead acknowledging the receipt of a pass over York River Railroad, of which his father was then superintendent.

The Young Women's Christian Temperance Union will give a "Hard Times Soshul" in the business men's hall Thanksgiving night.

This week while moving the building in which was located the mayor's office a large flue weighing 50 pounds fell from the top grazing Mr. N. C. Jarrell in its fall, shocking him considerably.

Mr. Harper Johnson will at an early date build a row of brick buildings on his property on Thomasville street, in the rear of Ring's drug store.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking spot, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSON, VA., Dec. 31.
I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the female organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

WINE OF CARDUI

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, of which Mrs. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: 'I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim.' No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

An old bachelor says it takes a smart woman to make a first-class fool of a man. Some women of ordinary intelligence must have made a second-class fool of him.

A THOUSAND TONGUES.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

Rough diamonds are valuable, but the baseball player has no use for them.

YES it is very gratifying to hear so many people praising our BEST PATENT FLOUR—Eagle Brand—which is the best possible evidence we could get of its superiority over other flours sold on this market. SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1900.

General Wade Hampton, now tottering on the brink of the grave, writes a letter to the Charleston News & Courier, in reply to an intimation that Gen. Robert E. Lee felt some hesitation at the outbreak of the war as to the course he should pursue. General Hampton says that this was not true, and further says:

"Some time after the close of the war I had the pleasure of spending several days with the General at his home in Lexington, and once while discussing the war, he said: 'I did only what my duty demanded. I could have taken no other course without dishonor, and if it was all to do over I should act precisely as I did.'"

The Southern people do not need to be told this, for they know it, but it is well that General Hampton speaks from his own intimate and personal knowledge.

Our readers perhaps noticed that there was not any telegraphic news in yesterday's paper. That was for two reasons. One was because there was no news of real interest or any importance whatever. The other was that our capacity was crowded with important local matter, all of which had precedent over the unimportant telegraphic stuff of the day. We try to give the news that is of most importance each day, whether it be home or foreign. For the same reason the editorial page is curtailed today.

It is said that Chairman Jones may retire. He will no doubt enjoy a well-earned rest. Thirteen earned votes should satisfy any man.

take care of their voice; take care of their language in the pulpit and in social life; be careful of the minor proprieties of life. In dress, custom has clothed us in black. Let us wear it now, after a while, we walk with Him in white. Above all in the church of God, in the pulpit, do not beat or pound the Bible. Guard your spirit, keep sweet. Have mouth shutting grace. How solemn and searching the questions—Are you out of debt? Do you expect to be made perfect in love in this life? Will you visit from home to home? And by vote they were received into the Conference.

The special committee appointed to consider the proposition of the North Carolina Conference to jointly possess the Orphanage at Raleigh, report advising a commission, to meet a like commission from the North Carolina Conference to determine our relation to the Orphanage.

Gastonia was selected as the place for holding the next Annual Conference.

A motion was made and carried that the preachers take collections and remit as a thanksgiving offering to the Oxford Orphanage.

Committee on Books and Periodicals made report which was adopted.

Report on Temperance was made and adopted.

Answer—J. A. Green.

A Vanderbilt Girl Earns Her Living. St. Louis Republic.

While Alfred Vanderbilt, great-grandson of old commodore Vanderbilt, was doing the horse show last evening in "any old clothes," made permissible by the fact that he is owner by inheritance of $50,000,000, the "Miss DeLex Allen," a granddaughter of the Commodore who made the original millions, was singing and dancing on the stage of the Lenox Lyceum, in order to earn her own living.

It was the professional debut of Marie Wilmerding, better known, perhaps, as Mrs. "Jack" Wilmerding, and daughter of the late Vanderbilt Allen. "I am free," she said with a glad smile yesterday at the Victoria Hotel, "and I have just one thousand dollars in the world. The nightmare is over. Bloomingdale is left behind. My masters have departed. The guardian and trustees and committee of my estate have been discharged. So long as I had an estate I was not deemed competent to manage it. Now that it has been dissipated by others and I have no estate left to manage, I have been adjudged competent to manage it. My own lawyer, Mr. Levy, who got me out of Bloomingdale where I, a sane woman, was held prisoner, only got $700 for his priceless services. Lawyer Gleason, who represented the trustees, and who had me incarcerated through a deception, got $15,000.

"But let them go. Marie Allen will paddle her own canoe now. I am going on the stage, thanks to the good offices of my dear friend, Mrs. Jack Bloodgood, who was forced to face the footlights for a living."

Mrs. Wilmerding's debut last evening was made at a charity entertainment given by the Columbus Catholic Club at the Lenox Lyceum. She appeared in a humorous sketch entitled "The Gold Brick." It was written for her by Darcy, the star writer of vaudeville sketches, and she was assisted in the presentation by George Cowles and Guy Phillips.

His eyes last night were clear and sparkling and she was the same charming woman who at former horse shows used to have a mob of young men around her. She plays the part of a country maiden with spirit and humor, and those who watched the sketch predict that she will make a success on the vaudeville stage.

POLITICS

Written for The Telegram.

Politics are all very well, From a cool outside point of view; But if once into their vortex you're whirled, And under their shadow your flag is unfurled, You will find when once your ardor is cooled, (Which won't take very long) that you've been a fool; And you'll find the old adage that's still ever new, Of things looking different from two points of view. Applies to your case; in fact fits so well, That you call them simply a foretaste of hell. So take my advice before you begin, And if now you are well out, Why don't venture in.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The island of Guam is 3,500 miles from Honolulu and 1,600 miles from Manila.

The postal service establishment of the United States is the greatest business concern in the world. The revenue of the post office of New York is more than $8,000,000 yearly, with a net profit of $5,000,000.

The English language heads the list, with the enormous vocabulary of 260,000 words, while the Spanish has only 20,000, the German 80,000, Italian 75,000, French 30,000, Turkish 22,500. Shakespeare's vocabulary is put at 13,000, Milton's at 8,000 and the Bible at rather less.

Japan is the largest consumer of rice in the world, the average being 300 pounds per person a year. The Americans use but four pounds per capita. Belgium uses more tobacco, in proportion, than any other country, about 110 ounces per capita yearly, while Italy uses only 22 ounces.

There is an easy, simple way to tell if a diamond is genuine. Make a small dot on a piece of paper with a lead pencil, and look at it through a diamond. If it shows but a single dot the diamond is genuine. If it shows more than one, or the mark appears scattered, it is false, no matter what it cost.

One aspect of the food problem has assuredly been solved by a company in New Haven, Conn., which undertakes to serve hot meals to all and sundry within a radius of 70 miles from its headquarters, and that from 25 per cent. to 50 per cent. cheaper than they can be obtained elsewhere. These meals are sent out in wagons with compartments for each article; the meals are placed in the different compartments smoking hot, and are kept at a high temperature until placed on the purchaser's table.

William W. Evans, of Deal's Island, Del., has a horse which has proved a remarkable investment and has overridden the ideas and records of the average useful life of horses. Twenty-seven years ago Mr. Evans purchased the horse from Scott Covington, who guaranteed at that time that the animal was six years old. Mr. Evans proved to be a good master, and the horse returned the kind treatment by retaining its full activity and energy, and now, at 33 years, the horse works nearly every day, see and hears well, and has an excellent appetite.

Grief for His Wife Killed Charles Hoyt.

Charlestown, N. H., Nov. 22.—At his home in this city, within sight of the graves of his two beautiful wives, Flora Walsh and Caroline Miskel, Charles H. Hoyt, the famous writer of farce comedy, died of paresis.

That the end was approaching was evident early Monday evening when he suffered a collapse, from which, however, he rallied. He suffered another attack early this morning from which he never recovered. He was unconscious from the second attack.

He has steadily declined physically and mentally since the 1st of September, just following his return from the Hartford Asylum. The funeral will probably occur Saturday.

Charles H. Hoyt lost his brain from grief over the loss of his wife and from overwork.

The playwright, essentially an American in everything, was hardly more than forty years old. He was born in Concord, N. H. He studied law for a year, but at the end of that time he decided to go into some other business. Having a fluency of language, he obtained a small post on a newspaper in St. Albans, Vt.

He wrote so well that when only nineteen years old he was asked to take charge of the funny "All Sorts" column on The Boston Post. As a newspaper man Hoyt was a success. He originated and collected funny stories and associated a great deal with theatrical people. The sequel is simple. He wrote plays.

In 1887, when she was only twenty-two years old, he married Flora Walsh, the actress. She died in a few years. Meanwhile Hoyt was growing more prosperous.

He married the beautiful Caroline Miskel, who played the pensive maiden in his "A Temperance Town." It was a love match. She died in October, 1898.

The loss broke Hoyt's heart, ruined his brain, and destroyed his health. He developed paresis. His grief was so great that he could not allow himself to be alone for a moment.

Last July he was committed to a sanitarium at the request of his best friends.

Hoyt's wonderfully long list of plays included "A Parlor Match," "A Trip to Chinatown," "A Brass Monkey," "A Mid-night Bell," "A Milk White Flag," "A Texas Steer," "A Bunch of Keys," "A Temperance Town," "A Day and a Night in New York," and "A Stranger in New York."

Brimful of genuine pleasure for the children if you get them a wonderful talking machine. Moore Optical Co.
